DEROULEDE GOES FREE.

Jury Acquits Him and His Comrade of Inciting Soldiers.

VIOLENT SCENES IN COURT ROOM.

Prisoner Interrupts Proceedings With Defiance of Judge—Audience Breaks Over Railing to Congratulate the Accused Agitator, Who Departs Uttering Threats—Addresses League of Patriots.

PARIS, June 1.—Derooude and Marcel Habert, who have been on trial before the assizes court here on the charge of inciting soldiers to insubordination in connection with the election of President Loubet, were acquitted yesterday. The court was crowded. During the course of Maitre Palateuf's defense of General Herve, he read a newspaper criticism of the general, and Derooude, rising, shouted: "This is treason." The president of the court interrupted Derooude, saying: "I have been lenient with you, you must be silent." Derooude, however, continued, and concluded by turning to the judge and shouting: "Now arrest me. Shut me up. For I will not cease my attempts to overthrow parliamentarism."

A great tumult followed. "Bravos" were heard on all sides. The whole audience joined in the uproar, which was continued until the police succeeded in clearing the court. After the jury had pronounced the acquittal of M. Derooude and Marcel Habert the audience rose en masse and invaded the dock, jury boxes and other reserved parts of the courtroom, shouting, "Vive Derooude," "Vive le jury," and singing the Marseillaise. As the republican guard led M. Derooude out of the courtroom he was heard uttering threats as to his future action.

After their release MM. Derooude and Marcel Habert proceeded to the offices of the League of Patriots, where they harangued their followers. There were slight demonstrations on the streets and the police arrested a few persons who were shouting "Abas Panama."

Manau Pleads for Dreyfus.

PARIS, June 1.—The vicinity of the palace of justice was almost deserted when the court of cassation resumed hearing the arguments in the application for a revision of the Dreyfus trial. M. Manau, the procurator general, continued his speech. He contended that Major Count Esterhazy was the author of the bordereau which has figured so prominently in the case, and not Dreyfus. In the course of his remarks he said that whoever was guilty, somebody had committed the crime of treason.

EFFORTS AT RESCUE FAIL.

American Prisoners Are Rushed Into the Interior by Natives.

MANILA, June 1.—Details regarding the capture by Filipinos of two officers of the United States hospital ship Relief have just been obtained. The Relief lies in the harbor in front of this city. Third Officer Fred Heppy and Assistant Engineer Charles Blanford rigged a sail on one of the ship's boats and went sailing along the shore on the south, opposite the insurgent lines. The boat became becalmed near the shore and some native canoes with Filipinos on board put out and captured the two men, who were unarmed, and also took possession of the boat. The Monadnock quickly sent a boat with a landing party ashore, under cover of its guns, and shelled the shore briskly. The natives, however, rushed the prisoners into the woods before the Monadnock's boat reached land. Friendly natives arriving here from the country around San Isidro and San Miguel report that a reign of terror has prevailed since the American troops were withdrawn from those parts of the islands. The insurgents who are returning there deal vengeance upon those of their countrymen who have shown any friendship towards the Americans.

Flying Fox Wins Derby.

LONDON, June 1.—Flying Fox won the derby. Sloan's mount, Holocaste, broke a leg during the race and was poleaxed.

Disappointed as is Tod Sloan at his failure to win the derby when convinced that he had the race won, his grief at the death of Holocaste outweighs all else. He said: "I was in the lead and Holocaste was going splendidly without urging. I am convinced he had all the steam necessary to win the race, but suddenly I felt him going down. He did not throw me. I held on his neck with both arms until I pulled up enough to dismount. The leg had been broken clean off, so that the horse was jamming the stump on the ground at each jump. I never saw such a sight, and yet the horse was so game that I think he would have kept on the race if it had been physically possible. It is impossible to tell how the accident occurred, though the turf was very hard and he may have turned the leg on some obstacle. Of course there was nothing to do but to kill the poor fellow. He lost his life in the gamiest race I ever ran."

Gilmore Is Reported Well.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The following dispatch received by the navy department is the first direct news of Lieutenant Gilmore that has been received for over a week. It is taken by the department as a hopeful indication of his situation: MANILA, May 31.—Secretary Navy, Washington: Escaped Spanish prisoner reports seeing Gilmore and some sailors well. Gilmore allowed horse.

Mrs. I. M. Barnes, 37 Medford St., Medford, Mass., writes on Jan'y 21st, 1899: "It would be difficult for me to find language to describe my suffering for three years before taking your Dr. Kay's Renovator. Several physicians pronounced my case one of Nervous Dyspepsia and Nervous Prostration. A little exertion, excitement or worry would cause great prostration, extreme nervousness, headache, indigestion and severe vomiting which at times kept up continuously for two or three days in spite of all my physicians could do. I became very thin in flesh and lost nearly all of my hair, the top of my head being entirely bald. I suffered terribly with my stomach, being unable to digest anything. I tried several physicians without getting any relief. Finally last August a friend sent me Dr. Kay's Renovator and I began to improve as soon as I took it and the change was wonderful. No one was ever benefited more than I nor could they be more thankful for such a panacea as Dr. Kay's Renovator as my physicians could not help me. As soon as I began to improve my hair began to grow and now it is nicer than ever. I could not exaggerate my case nor the benefits I have received from taking

Dr. Kay's Renovator
